

Wear Your Clothcraft Clothes Without Worry

YOU can wear Clothcraft Clothes anywhere with the confident, comfortable feeling that the fit and style are right—that you are as well dressed as any man in the crowd.

You need not be afraid of the test of wear either. When you buy Clothcraft Clothes at $10 to $25, you can be satisfied that they will keep their fresh-bought dressiness, style and shape from the first to the last day you wear them.

The Clothcraft guarantee makes it unnecessary for you to depend on your own judgment alone in buying clothes. The things you can't see or foresee are all covered by this broad liberal guarantee which insures pure wool, lasting shape, satisfactory wear and service.

These insured clothes at $10 to $25 make it unnecessary to take a chance. They make the difference in your favor of performance over promise in the matter of getting clothes quality and service.

It's a difference worth considering. Ask us more about it before you buy your next suit.

We can fit you in No. 5130,
The Clothcraft Blue Serge
Special, $15.

SUTTON & McBEE

MR. T. S. BRANNAMON

To the voters of Rockcastle:

I take this means of announcing that I am candidate for sheriff of Rockcastle county subject to the action of the Republican party, August primary 1913. If elected Mr. R. H. Long will be my deputy. I will have two opponents, Mr. Tip Langford and Mr. Cam Mullins, both splendid good men, but as Mr. Langford has already been honored by the voters and Mr. Mullins has a splendid position with the L. & N. Railroad and does not need the office as I do, and having never held an office, I trust the voters will give me claim the consideration I feel that is due me, in your decision as to whom you will support in the coming contest. One term of office is all I shall ask. If elected, I will go into the office sober and come out of it the same way. I am a farmer and live four miles North of Mt. Vernon, and Mr. Long, who is also a farmer, lives about an equal distance on the South side. I believe I know the duties and character of service that a faithful and efficient officer, is required to render and if elected let me assure one and all, that there will never be any cause for regret, upon the part of those who voted for me, because of the neglect or failure upon my part, to perform any obligation coming within the scope of the duties of the high sheriff of a county.

Yours very truly,
T. S. BRANNAMON.

HON. E. B. THOMPSON

After being solicited by many voters from different sections of the county, I have decided to present my name before the Republicans of Rockcastle county as a candidate for County Attorney, to be voted for by the Republicans at the Republican Primary to be held on the First Saturday in August, 1913.

I have no fixed code of principles, (or platform), to set forth as the grounds upon which I propose to make the race, more than to say that if nominated and elected I will use all my time and energy to discharge the duties of the Office in a fair and faithful manner. I consider a Public Officer the servant of the people who elect him, and that it is his duty to give his entire time and attention to the service of the people in transacting their business. His office doors should be open at all reasonable hours to them.

I am a firm believer in a (Square Deal). Is it fair and square to allow one man "Life Tenure" in Office? To do so means to violate the very letter and spirit of our form of government; valuable public service is not the exclusive power of one individual. In the beginning, I pledge myself to the people, if nominated, I will be true to the principles of our great Government. In this manner alone can a "Square Deal" be assured.

I am not asking for this office because I think I would make the best County Attorney the County has had, but am asking for it because I feel that I am qualified to hold the office, and know that I will do my best, and I promise the people to discharge the duties in a proper manner.

I propose to make a clean, but vigorous fight for the nomination, and I shall make every effort possible to see every voter in the county and discuss the matters pertaining to my campaign face to face with them. In case I have opposition, I will gladly campaign the county with my opponents and discuss the questions together before the People, and give them a chance to see them in action.

I am a Republican and believer in the principles of the great party. A Party founded by such men as Lincoln, Grant, Blain and Sherman is good enough for me and the principles as enunciated by them can never die; they are Eternal. I can truthfully say that I have never dodged nor shirked when called upon to do service for My Party.

Now in conclusion. I will say to the voters: inquire concerning me, and if I measure up to the standard of what a County Attorney should be, I will appreciate your support.

Yours respectfully,
E. B. THOMPSON.

LIVINGSTON.

Mr. T. J. Pennington has been appointed deputy clerk. We are pleased with this appointment, as Mr. Pennington is a nice man and well liked by all. This is another star in S. F. Bowman's cap.—Ab Sparks and two daughters, of Mt. Vernon, were here between trains, Wednesday.—John McGee, of Danville, was in our town, Wednesday.—The case of J. A. Oliver vs. L. & N. R. R. Co., for alleged breakage of four glasses of jelly, was tried Tuesday night and case thrown out of court and cost assessed against Mr. Oliver.—There is lots of whooping cough in our town at present and it seems to be going pretty hard with some of the young folks.—

in the course of his conversation remarked that he was surprised to find such a quiet, peaceable place as it was, owing to the fact that only a few years ago it was dangerous to be out after night. We know that there has been an awful change, but we think that it is time, and we are satisfied that there is not a more quiet spot on the map than the little town of Livingston.—Mr. and Mrs. George Hellard, of Hazel Patch, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hellard.—Joe O'Mary and little son, George W., visited relatives in Jellico, this week.—Mrs. Sam Smith, who is in very poor health, seems to be growing weaker.—Bill Cummins, of Mt. Vernon, was here Sunday, but claimed that he was here visiting relatives. Just wait and we will find out what relation he is to a certain young lady in town.—R. J. Lemonds has returned from Paris, Tenn., after a few days' visit with relatives.—Fishing has begun in earnest and a few have been lucky enough to catch some of the funny tribe.—S. F. Bowman, candidate to succeed himself as County Court Clerk, was here Sunday telling some of his funny jokes. He says his chances are good for re-election.—A little child of Brant Kings, died Friday the 11th, and was buried in the Ward burial ground the 12th.—Reece Ward, who has been sick or some time with typhoid fever is rapidly improving.—There was a man from Corbin, whose name we will not give, came here Sunday night, and it was soon found that he was well tanked up on King Corny. Our marshal soon had him and he became the first inmate of our new jail. On Monday morning he was taken to the Hall of Justice, tried and fined $10. Boys, we have talked to you with tears in our eyes about this home question and yet you will not heed, so go your ups, but if Judge Witt gets hold of you, we will wager that the next time you come to town you will be sober.—C. H. Rice has returned from Louisville, after a stay of a few days in that city.—J. W. Baker, of Mt. Vernon, was in our city, Saturday.—Miss Pearl Anglin and Miss Sinie Parker, of Mt. Vernon, were here Saturday.—The Rev. Cheek, of Danville, Ky., held services at the Presbyterian church, Saturday evening and Sunday.—Rev. D. G. Combs, of Moorehead, Ky., will preach at the Christian church the 24th of this month.—T. T. Blanford, of Louisville, was with his brother, C. A. Blanford, Sunday.—Mrs. Bernard Hagan is visiting relatives at Rowland this week.

LANGDON MEMORIAL SCHOOL.

The Rev. Mr. Michel, of Harlan, was a helpful chapel speaker recently.

Sadie Huff spent the week end with Julia Dodd.

Sallie Stewart, Ella Mae Coffee and Jalia Thompson were home over Sunday.

Dr. White, of Louisville spent part of Thursday and Friday at the dormitory. While here, he examined the eyes, ears, nose and throat of every student both here in the dormitory and at the Graded School.

Several full rehearsals of the operetta "Sylvia" have been held at the graded school. There are also many part practices each week. While the music is good it is also bright and attractive.

THESE are two of the relatives of Daniel Boone living in this county: William R. Boone of Cedarville, in Southern part of Rockcastle and his cousin Mrs. T. B. Chandler, of Bromo, South Western portion of the county. Mr. Boone's grand father Thos. Boone was a brother of the great pioneer. William came to Rockcastle from Weatherford county North Carolina in 1822. Daniel was a great great uncle of Mrs. T. B. Chandler, who is also a native of the tar heel state and has been living in this county some twenty odd years.

LOUISVILLE, claiming to be a city is up against the craze for side walks and streets, and there is a howl going up demanding ordinances prohibiting the use of side walks and streets for skating purposes. This is more evidence of the slow poke easy pace that Louisville is known to pursue. Our little town past such an ordinance as soon as pavements were put down. Push carts, wheel-barrows and horses we are told are not allowed to monopolize the side walks though skaters and billy goats may "scoot" and roam thereon at will.

SINCE Mt. Vernon started the movement looking to the construction of Boone Way many of our state papers are publishing matters of interest in connection with the old pioneer. The latest is by the Louisville Times of last Saturday, April 19th, in which is pictured a beech tree located in Iroquois park on which appears the inscription "D. Boone 1803", supposed to have been made by a deer hunter while back on a trip from Missouri. The Boone tree is a giant beech.

THE Lincoln County National Bank, of Stanford in its splendid calendars in addition to a map of the county shows the old and new court houses and two views of their bank building, have traced out the route of the "Old Wilderness Road" from Crab Orchard through Stanford to the Danville pike to North West border of the county.

MAT B. SEWELL will be the next candidate to be elected to the Kentucky Legislature to represent the seventieth district.

Statistics of Rockcastle County from 1812 to 1878.

By JAMES MARET.

Members of the Legislature. The first Senator from the county was Gen'l William Smith from 1834 to 1838 followed by John A. Moore 1841; James S. Henderson '45 to '48; Milton J. Cook '63 '67, (father of Jarvis J. Cook and Mrs. G. M. Ballard). House of Representatives. John Dysart was the first representative from the county 1814; William Carson 1816, '26; Gen'l William Smith, great grand father of Alvah Maret and great grand father of W. J. Newcomb and great great grand parent of Will H. Fish, junior member of the clothing house at the "sign of the Fish" in Masonic building, this place, served more terms in the legislature than any other person from our county, beginning as a representative in 1817 continuing until and including 1829, then in the Senate from 1834 and '38. Uriah Gresham, house representatives, 1824, '39 John H. Slaughter 1825; Chas. Collier, 1830, '33 '40; Elisha Smith 1831, '32, '42, '43, '45; his father Gen'l Smith was in Senate during two of his sons, Elisha's terms of service. John A. Moore 1834, the lawyer who prosecuted Johnathan Davidson, the first man legal y executed in Rockcastle county on charge of the murder of Henry Langford whom he killed by stabbing to the heart on street, between what is now the business houses of J. Fish & Son and U. G. Baker, Main and Second streets, Mt. Vernon. J. L. Joplin, now of Harrodsburg was a witness in the case. The execution took place just West of town at a point about where the house of Emmett Sowder stands. In a speech made by the doomed man, just before the fatal hour, he uttered a curse against Moore and his family saying the prosecutor had bounded a justified man into the grave and stating further "You caused this killing by your dirty work before the murder and afterward prosecuting and persecuting me. You nor any of your family will ever be a success at anything. You have brought me to the gallows. You and yours shall suffer and before many years disappear from the face of the earth". It is said the prophesy was fulfilled. Henry Owsley, of Lincoln county for Laurel, Lincoln and Rockcastle 1829, '31. Henry S. Langford from Rockcastle, 1836, '37. William H. Kirtley, 1841, father of Wm. Poynter and Mrs. D. C. Poynter and a brother of Charles Kirtley a well known lawyer in his day. William B. Moore 1847; Johnathan S. Langford 1849; Milton J. Cook, 1855, (the year the riter was born) '57, '59, '61; Johnathan Nercobin, a brother of the late Milton P. Newcomb and the latter of Mrs. Dr. S. W. Brown now living at Houston Tex and Mrs. Capt. G. W. Roberts of Louisville, 1857, '59; E. B. Batcheller, 1861, '63; From Laurel and Rockcastle, John J. Haley 1851 '53, an uncle of C. C. Williams and Mrs. Cleo Brown. From Rockcastle, Wm. A. Brooks 1863, 1865, was the father of W. T. Joe, James and McClellan Brooks, and lived in the house at South & Second street, now owned and occupied by W. A. B. Davis who has been elected twice in late years as a representative from Rockcastle Laurel, the seventieth legislative district; John K. McClary, 1867 '69, a well known practicing lawyer and farmer the father of Will and Majorie McClary. R. D. Cook 1871 '73, lived near Conway and died some twenty years ago. From Lincoln and Rockcastle counties, John Withers 1812; From Rockcastle, P. Gresham 1873 '72 lived at Livingston and conducted the Gresham hotel across the river in Laurel county until that county voted prohibition. Gresham to continue his tavern license got a special bill put thru the legislature changing the county line from the river into Laurel running so as to take into Rockcastle county all that portion lying in the big bend of the river putting his tavern into the latter county and that territory so remains today within the bounds of this county. Mr. Gresham married Miss Tabitha Ward, daughter of Reece Ward and a brother of the late Samuel Ward, John M. Fish, 1875 '77, a farmer and once County Judge and lived at Buckeye, was the father of Hiram, John B., Geo. C., Fish and Mrs. Mollie McClary. This brings the legislative statics up to 1877 the year the riter located in Mt. Vernon.

Rockcastle county, the 52nd, established in the State was found in 1816, out of parts of Lincoln, Pulaski, Madison and Knox counties, named after Rockcastle River which forms its South east border.

The latitude of Mt. Vernon is 37 degrees 19 minutes, and longitude 7 degrees 12 minutes from Washington. The population of county, 1810, when county is formed 1,731. 1820, 2,249; 1830, 2,865; 1840, 3,909; 1850, 4,697; 1860, 4,343; 1870, 7,145. In next forty years the population doubled and census of 1910 should 14,473. In the year 1840 there were 377 slaves in the county 375 in 1850; 357 in 1860 and 40 free colored persons, and 1870 shows a free colored population 369. It is believed today that they number less than 100 in the county limits.

Valuation of taxable property 1846, $518,876. In 1870, 1,033,551; land valued at $2.19 per acre in 1846 and $4.06 in 1870. There was 12,940 pounds tobacco raised in the county in 1870, in the same year the lists showed 1653 horses, 196 mules, 4,644 cattle 3358 hogs over six months old, 746 tons of hay, 208,875 bushels corn and 9,354 bushels wheat.

The population of town of Mt. Vernon in 1830 was 142; 1840; 209; 1850 not enumerated in 1860 it had fallen to 156; 1860 places it at 252. Census of 1900, thirty years later shows the number to be 422. The next decade, 1910, placed the population at 930, doubling within ten years.

A future article will deal with that period between 1877 to 1913

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

London, Ky., Apr. 22nd, 1913.

Elsewhere in the columns of the Signal will appear my announcement as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative from the Seventieth Legislative District, composed of the counties of Laurel and Rockcastle.

Under the agreement now existing between the two counties, it is Laurel's time to send a man to the General Assembly however, the new Primary law will allow the voters of Rockcastle to assist in selecting the nominee in the Primary, as well as, to vote in the final election, and I shall appreciate your support.

I was born in Rockcastle county and raised in Laurel; am a Republican by choice; have contributed my time and means toward the success of the Grand old Party in every election since I became a voter and have been unswerving in my loyalty to party principles and nominees.

I desire to say to my friends and to the good people of Rockcastle that I shall endeavor, if nominated and elected, to serve the best interests of the entire people of my district; in matters political, standing for Republican measures and Republican principles; not political, for any method of advancements for my District and its people.

I hope to have an opportunity to meet and talk with most of you before the Primary, but, whether I do or not, I shall be glad to have your support and promise, if elected, to put forth my best, as your Representative, in an effort to reflect credit upon my District, my people and myself as a member of the next Kentucky General Assembly.

COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION

Coughs and colds when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, you will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery she would not be living to-day." Known for forty-three years as the best remedy for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by Chas. C. Davis.

LOOK TO YOUR PLUMBING.

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is poor condition—everyone in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by C. C. Davis.

TOM COVINGTON JR.

Is a Dark Bay, black points, 16 hands high, foaled April 1908, sired by Allen Quartermain, he by Tom Covington. 1st dam Mande, 2nd dam Gray Eagle. Tom Covington, Jr., is a combined saddle and harness horse. He possesses all the five gait with speed, grace and action. He is a true type of the saddler in beauty of motion and form; is fearless and absolutely sound. Has already proven himself a fine breed, colts large size and splendid build.

This champion 6 year old stallion will make season of 1913 at my farm 1-4 mile north of Pine Hill, Ky., at $10.00 to insure a living colt. Season money due when mare is traded or putted with. Care taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

DAVIS-ROBINS.—Mr. Walter Robins, of Brodhead and Miss Virginia Davis were married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Durham, on Newcomb Ave. Judge L. W. Bethurum said the ceremony which made them man and wife. Mr. Robins is brother of John Robins, of Brodhead, and is a splendid young man. The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. A. B. Davis and a most charming young lady. For the past seven years she has been an almost indispensable asset to the SIGNAL force and no one knows her true worth or high character of woman that she is better than the writer. The groom is certainly to be congratulated on winning the hand of such a noble helpmate through life. It is with deep regret with the rest of the force that we lose her from our number, but with her goes the best wishes of us all, for the happiness and prosperity of her and hers through life and may her new life and new duties be surrounded by that degree of happiness and sunshine of which she is so justly deserving.

In the rush last week our proof reader failed to "discover" several omissions, errors etc., and he has since been in hiding to escape bodily harm from faithful contributors. In the article on Luther Burbank, the plant wizard the types made the address Santa Rosa when it should have been Santa Rosa Calif. In the article on simplified spelling where it says "There is engendered a disbelief in learning and a total 'look' of confidence in inference should read 'lack of confidence' etc.

Hugh Miller, reports that he is having fine success with his bunch of spring pigs. He has one gilt that farrowed 11 fine large healthy pigs, all on foot. This sow only has 10 teats, and it is amusing to see the old pig scramble and fight for a place. He invites all hog fanciers to call around to Hillsdale Place and look at these three jersey litters. The grandsire of this bunch sold for $1500 in D. Stauber's sale a Newport, Tenn., and the sire of this gilt sold for $410 in the sale of J. J. Kerfoot, at Elizabethtown, Ky. He will show you a bunch of cherry red pigs that was sired by old Col. King, said to be the best boar south of the Ohio River.
